

As the leading provider of impartial advice on daily living equipment in the UK, DLF is an excellent partner to work with in training your staff.

DLF Training offers a 'value for money' programme of CPD-accredited courses aimed at professional healthcare providers and carers, as well as informal carers and others who wish to learn more about interactions with disabled and older people. Courses are carried out by expert trainers with a wealth of experience.

DLF Training specialises in providing practical hands-on courses in the use of equipment to assist with personalised independent living goals.

Training can take place at one of our open courses which run regularly at our fully equipped training centre in Wandsworth, London or by arrangement at a location suitable to you.

Trusted Assessor Training
– a nationally accredited course

Moving and Handling People – specialist courses and our annual conferences
